

Summer Film Institute

STEPHENS
COLLEGE

May 14–25, 2008

Stephens College campus
Columbia, Missouri

A hands-on, intensive workshop for female filmmakers of all ages.

In 12 short days, you will:

- Learn shooting, producing, directing, sound, lighting and editing techniques
- Plan and produce a commercial, a music video and a short feature film
- Work alongside film professionals including Brock Williams, executive producer/owner, Boxcar Films; and Chad Frederichs and Chase Thompson, Stephens College film faculty members and independent filmmakers

Space is limited so interested filmmakers are encouraged to apply early.
